TED Talk Discussion Group
Sunday, October 13
2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

Roseville Library
2180 N. Hamline Ave, Roseville

Join us as our TED Talk Discussion Group comes to an end after 4 years! For the last time, we will view a TED Talk and then discuss it. Our last talk will be "The Most Important Thing You Can Do About Climate Change: Talk About It". How do you talk to someone who doesn't believe in climate change? Not by rehashing the same data and facts we've been discussing for years, says climate scientist Katharine Hayhoe. In this inspiring, pragmatic talk, Hayhoe shows how the key to having a real discussion is to connect over shared values like family, community and religion -- and to prompt people to realize that they already care about a changing climate. "We can't give in to despair," she says. "We have to go out and look for the hope we need to inspire us to act -- and that hope begins with a conversation, today

Let's Talk About Death:
 Demystifying Hospice Care

Tuesday, October 22, 2019
7:00—8:30 pm

Roseville Library
2180 N. Hamline Ave., Roseville

Join us for the second session in our new series: Let's Talk About Death, where we explore new thinking around death and end-of-life care.

In this session, we'll learn about the new work of Death Doulas, trained but non-medical professionals who provides physical, emotional and spiritual support at the end of life. Death Doulas Jane Whitlock and Anne Murphy provide a variety of supportive services to families who are facing death of a loved one, including creating family rituals, legacy planning, personalized memorials and celebrations, and how to make this transitional meaningful and personal.

Presented in partnership with Ramsey County Library - Roseville
