Do Good Roseville

Making Connections to Do Good Things in Our Community

Do Good Roseville was created in 2015 by Sherry Sanders and Kathy Ramundt. Together with Etienne Djevi and Jeena Gurung Vomhof, we take the “Do” in Do Good Roseville very seriously! All four board members have served as Commissioners for the City of Roseville. With Do Good Roseville we are able to continue and expand on what we can do to serve our community.

The scope of what we do truly is as broad as doing “anything” that is good for our community. We all have our passion projects, but we love nothing better than when someone comes to us with an idea for something that will benefit our community that we can help make happen.

It’s easy to be overwhelmed by the problems of the world, so we focus our energies on our community where we believe we can make a difference.

Our Purpose

To make connections to make things happen to strengthen our community;

To educate and inform people about issues that affect our community;

To advocate for the rights of under-represented individuals and groups;

To provide expertise and support to others who have ideas which benefit our community.

What Sets Us Apart

Numbers don’t matter. Our success is not tied to the number of people who participate in our events. Whoever participates are the right people. We are planting seeds.

Relationships matter. We are better together. We can’t do anything alone.

Everyone must be heard. For our community to reach its full potential everyone needs to be heard and included.

Sooner is better. Don’t wait to do something until it’s perfect, it’s not possible.

Our Work

Making Connections. Whether it’s a weekly Park Chat or a Community Conversation on a timely topic, we pride ourselves on creating opportunities for people to connect.

Relationships. The cornerstone of everything we are able to do is based on building relationships with Individuals, schools, faith communities, businesses, and other community organizations.

Volunteering. We host an annual volunteer fair as well as frequent group volunteer events.

Social Justice. From our Juneteenth Celebration to learning circles to mentoring programs, we seek opportunities to promote social justice in our community.

Collections. We find creative ways to help our community give to others. Ask us about our red bin!

The list is always growing. Civics, sustainability...what do you believe makes a strong community? Let’s talk about what else we can do!
